

Guided Dialogue Process

The above chart outlines the entire GDD Process. Each step and its component parts and activities are backed by best practice and proven research. Because they build on one another one cannot be omitted for convenience sake. The design and process promote deep personal understanding and deep common understanding among the participants